

GRAMMAR

In this section you will practice the grammar you need to improve your score on Part 5 and Part 6 of the TOEIC® test.

These are the exercises you will cover:

Word Choice

checking your knowledge of words that are often confused (some/any, etc.)

Auxiliary Verbs

choosing the correct auxiliary verb (will/have/may, etc.)

Comparatives and Superlatives

using the comparative (quicker, more convenient, etc.) and superlative (the cheapest, the most interesting, etc.)

Subject-Verb Agreement

making sure the subject and the verb of a sentence match (A team of experts is working on the problem.)

Pronouns

practicing the use of different pronouns (She asked me to work overtime on my own.)

Verb Forms and Tenses

using the correct form of the verb and the correct tense (We are having a meeting at 4:00 P.M.)

Gerunds and Infinitives

using the gerund (-ing form) and the infinitive (with and without to)

As you work through this Grammar section, try to identify your strengths and weaknesses. Notice what problems you have, and focus on the areas you need to improve.

Word Choice

Study these examples of grammar that can often be confused.

There are many things we need to do. There are few women in senior management.	Used with countable nouns (problems, people, etc.).
I do not have much work at the moment. We have little control over the project.	Used with uncountable nouns (time, money, etc.).
Here are some tickets for tonight's movie. Can I have some help, please?	Used in positive statements and questions.
I do not have any luggage. Are there any letters for me?	Used in negative statements and questions.
This is so easy, it will not take long. It is such an easy task it will not take long.	Used before an adjective (so heavy, so cheap). Used before an adjective + noun (such a good idea).
Do not work too hard. Are there enough chairs? We do not have enough money.	more than is necessary sufficient less than is necessary
There is no ink in this printer. The printer is out of ink. There is none left.	Used before nouns (no work, no food). Used without a noun, meaning "not any" or "not one."
I called two hotels. They are both full. Neither hotel has any vacancies. I cannot stay at either hotel.	Used with a noun to relate two things.
That is the best meal I have ever had. Have you ever gone abroad on business? I have never had a long vacation.	Used in positive statements and questions. Used in negative statements.
Most workers have lunch in the cafeteria. Of all my hobbies, I like reading the most . Almost all the employees have a pension.	the majority of Used in superlatives. very nearly